

Global Campus
of Human Rights

Master's Programme

EMA, The European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation

Academic Year 2024/2025

Global Campus Headquarters

non-EU & scholarships
deadline: 12 February 2024

gchumanrights.org/ema

Venice Lido

EU deadline: 16 April 2024

Co-funded by the European Union

@gchumanrights

#GCEurope #HumanRightsEducation

EMA, The European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation

The European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation (EMA) is one of the eight Regional Master's Programmes organised by the Global Campus of Human Rights. It was created with the support of the European Union and 43 participating universities from all the EU member states, the United Kingdom and Switzerland.

EMA is a one-year advanced master's course aimed at educating professionals in the field of human rights and democratisation. The Master's degree offers an action- and policy-oriented approach to learning that combines legal, political, historical, anthropological, and philosophical perspectives with skill-building activities, and in-depth study of the following areas: Human Rights Institutions, Mechanisms and Standards; Human Rights in Context: Historical, Philosophical, Religious and Anthropological Perspectives; Globalisation, Development and Human Rights; Building and Protecting Democracy; Human Rights, Peace and Security.

EMA provides the foundation for a career in national, international, governmental, inter-governmental and nongovernmental organisations, as well as academic institutions dealing with human rights and democratisation.

THE PROGRAMME

EMA is both a residential and an exchange programme. The first semester from September to January is organised at Global Campus Headquarters in Venice and the second semester from February to July takes place in one of the 43 participating universities. The multidisciplinary EMA Programme includes lectures, seminars, workshops, tutorials, skill-building sessions and individual.

SUPPORTING INSTITUTIONS

EMA is primarily financed by the European Union. EMA also collaborates with UNESCO, the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Region of Veneto, and benefits from close cooperation with the Council of Europe, the OSCE and other international organisations.

The EMA Programme is further enriched by the input of representatives of non-governmental organisations such as, among others, Human Rights Watch, the International Commission of Jurists, the International Rehabilitation Council for Torture Victims.

HOW TO APPLY

Deadline for non-EU and all scholarship applicants: 12 February 2024

Deadline for EU and self-funded applicants: 16 April 2024

Venue: Global Campus Headquarters in Venice Lido at the Monastery of San Nicolò.

Admission Requirements: EMA is open to EU and non-EU citizens. The criteria adopted during the selection process are academic ability and background, relevant additional academic work, courses or publications, relevant practical experience, motivation and language competence. Applicants are required to hold a university degree of a high standard in a field relevant to human rights, including disciplines in Law, Social Sciences and Humanities, and must have a minimum of 180 ECTS (Bachelor/General Degree). Certified fluency in English is an admission requirement to the programme.

More information about EMA, the faculty and the programme can be found at: gchumanrights.org/ema

