

School of English
Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

5th SUMMER SCHOOL 2019
28 June-4 July 2019
Special Topic:
Health – Culture – Healing

This is the 5th Summer School program to take place at the Faculty of Philosophy, AUTH. It is open to undergraduate and graduate students, IB students, secondary education teachers, and the general public.

It is organized with the collaboration of the Department of American Literature, School of English (AUTH), HELAAS (Hellenic Association for American Studies), and the Fulbright Foundation in Greece.

*A Certificate of Attendance will be provided to all participants ****
A Certificate of Course Completion will be provided to everyone completing the assigned homework

The three thematic strands of the six-day intensive (9.30am-3pm) summer school program sessions are:

- 28-29 June 2019
Healing through Nature and Traditional Folk Medicine
Sofia Emmanouilidou, Ph.D. (Special Teaching Staff, School of English, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece; Fulbright Alumna)
- 1-2 July 2019
The World as Hospital/The Stage as Hospital
Penelope Chatzidimitriou, Ph.D. (co-founder and director of the Ars Moriendi Theater Group; Lecturer in the international program of University of London)
- 3-4 July 2019
Mind/Body Fitness: Navigating Health and Wellness in Mainstream North American Culture
Sarah Hentges, Ph.D. (Associate Professor, University of Maine at Augusta, US; Fulbright Danish Distinguished Chair of American studies, University of Southern Denmark).

For more information about the program and fee, please click on:

<http://www.enl.auth.gr/summerschool/2019-amlit/index.html>

<http://www.enl.auth.gr/summerschool/2019-amlit/registration.html>

For more information and inquiries about registration, please email:

Dr. Zoe Detsi (detsi@enl.auth.gr) and Dr. Tatiani Rapatzikou (trapatz@enl.auth.gr)

Deadline for applications: June 10, 2019
Language of instruction: English